The Bruno David Gallery and Bruno David Projects offer unpaid internships to students of junior-year college level or above, recent graduates, graduate students, postgraduates, and mature professionals seeking further experience in the arts. Interns must demonstrate strong verbal and written communication skills, general web and computer confidence (uploading files, using Microsoft Office, etc.), and overall dependability.

The objective of the internship program is to offer practical, professional art gallery training to individuals interested in pursuing careers in the arts and gallery/museum fields. Internships are year-round, and require a minimum commitment of 5 hours per week, in addition to participation with the gallery's Opening Nights and the installation and de-installation of exhibitions. All internships require a commitment of four months.

Interns are responsible for assisting the gallery staff with:

- Welcoming visitors and answering questions about the current exhibition
- Handling and storing artworks
- Preparing materials for monthly exhibitions
- Updating the gallery inventory and mailing lists
- Creating art publications in In-Design and Photoshop
- Attending and assisting at the Bruno David Gallery's monthly openings
- Other assorted tasks

Interns may be compensated in the form of academic credit. Interested students should send a brief cover letter with résumé attachment by email to Bruno L. David at info@brunodavidgallery.com Please write "Re: Internship" in the subject line of the email to ensure consideration.
